

Monday, November 7, 2016 - Let this be our Prayer

The United States Presidential election, scheduled for tomorrow, has further divided a divided country. The campaigns, and candidates, have not been worthy of a country who's foundation was based on a deep belief in and reverence for Jehovah God.

I want Christians to understand that the results tomorrow, regardless what they are, do NOT change the responsibilities we have to live in accordance with God's will or the responsibility we have to be the proclaimer of God's word.

Matthew 5:13-15

13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.

14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

Matthew 28:19-20

9 Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Regardless of political party, or their agenda, morality in this country (even the world) will never change until the hearts and minds of mankind are changed; determined to submit their will to God's.

Wednesday, our lives as servants of God must still be focused on seeking the kingdom of God and sharing the promise of eternal life for all who will obey. That is something neither political party can match.

Please spend the next 36 hours praying for the future of our country.
